

NATIONAL ACCOUNTS

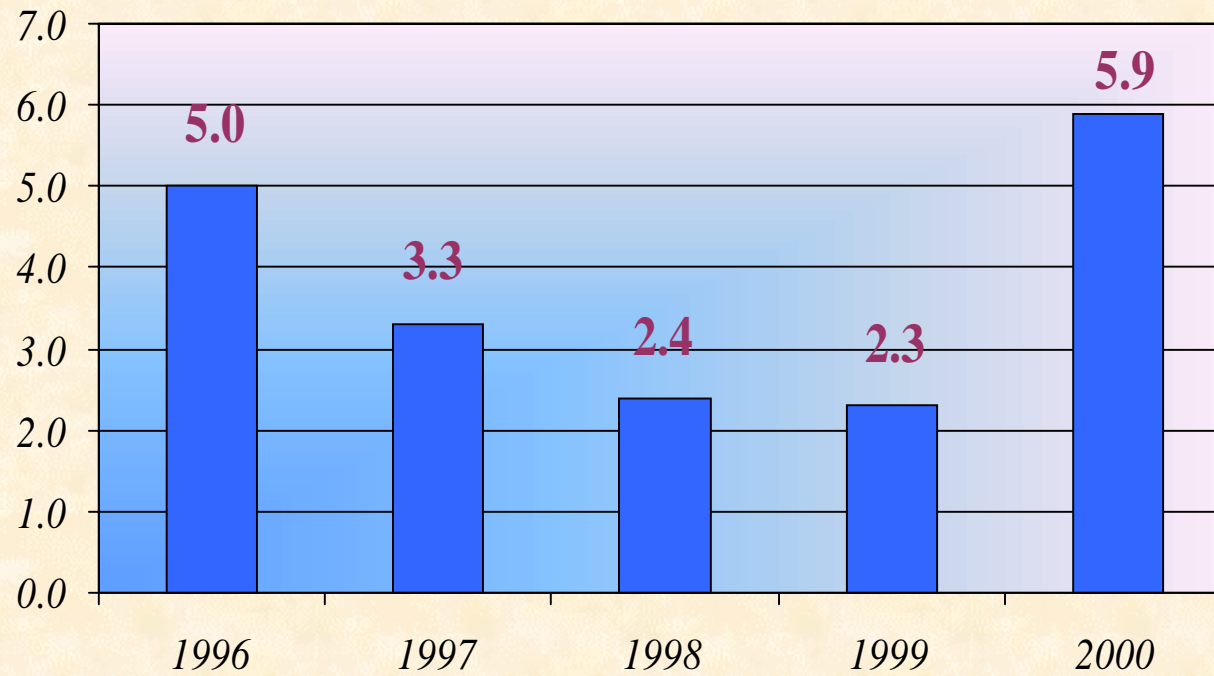

2000

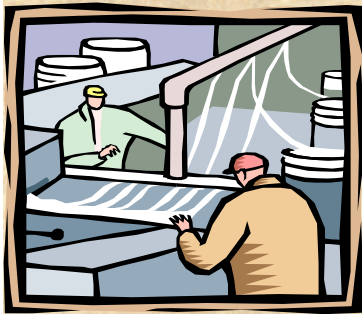

Gross Domestic Product

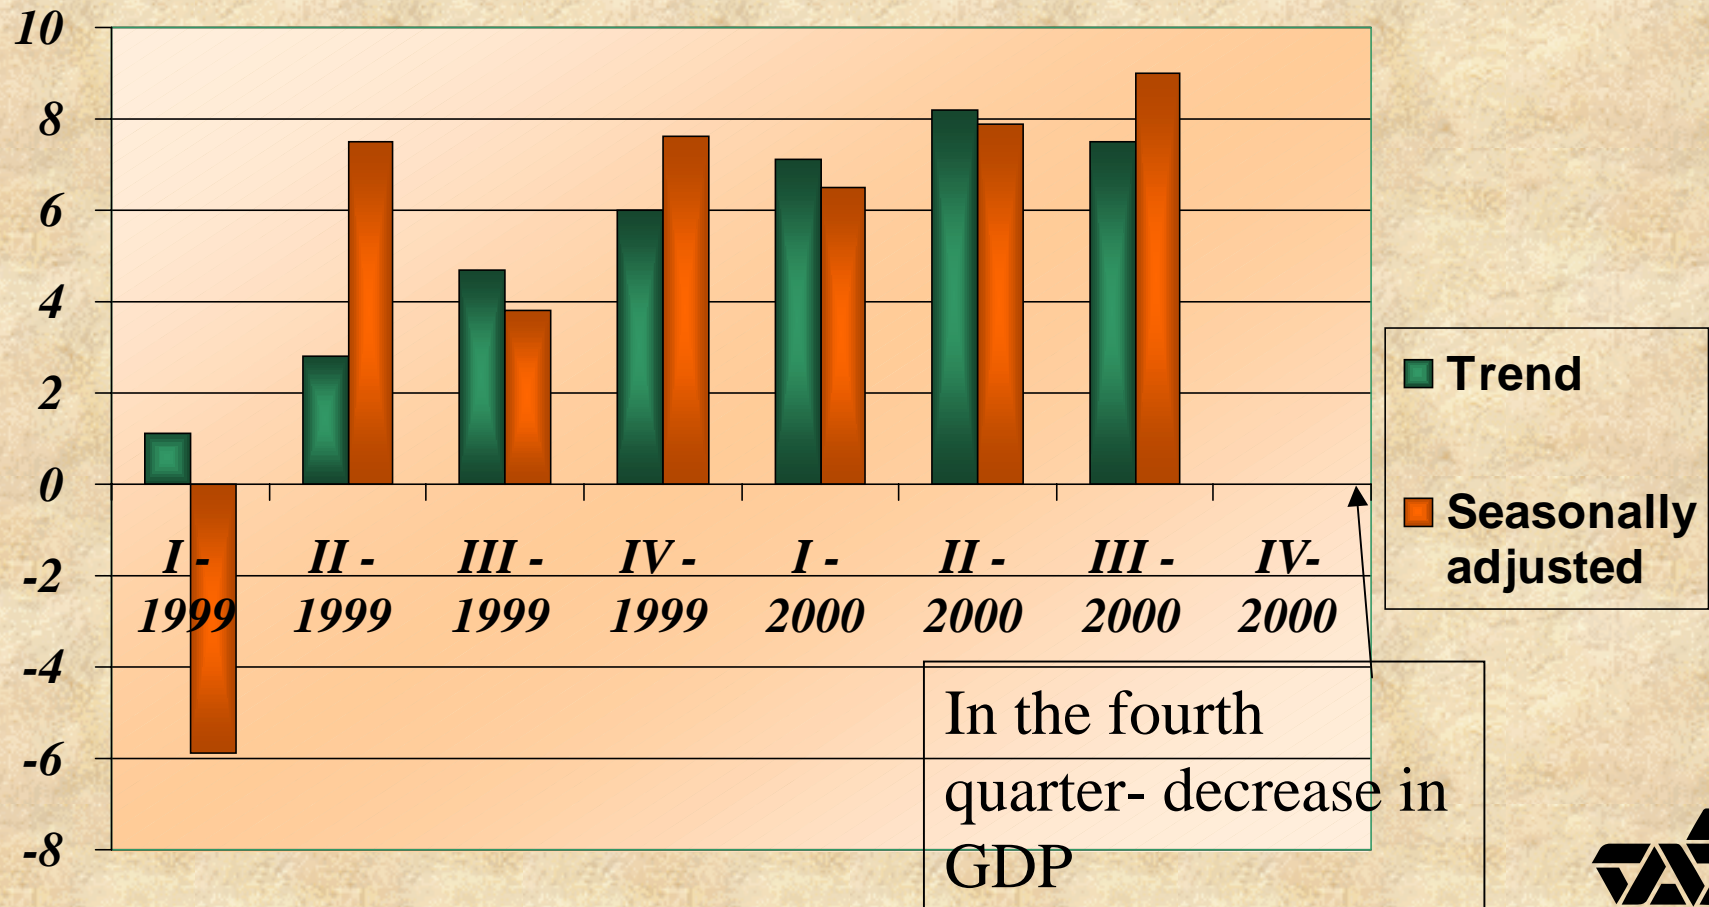

Percent change - on previous year

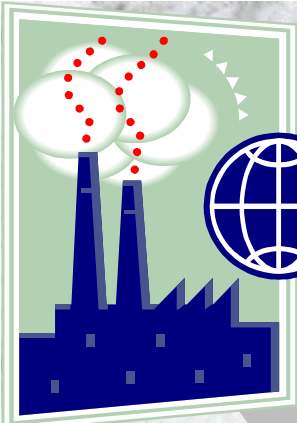

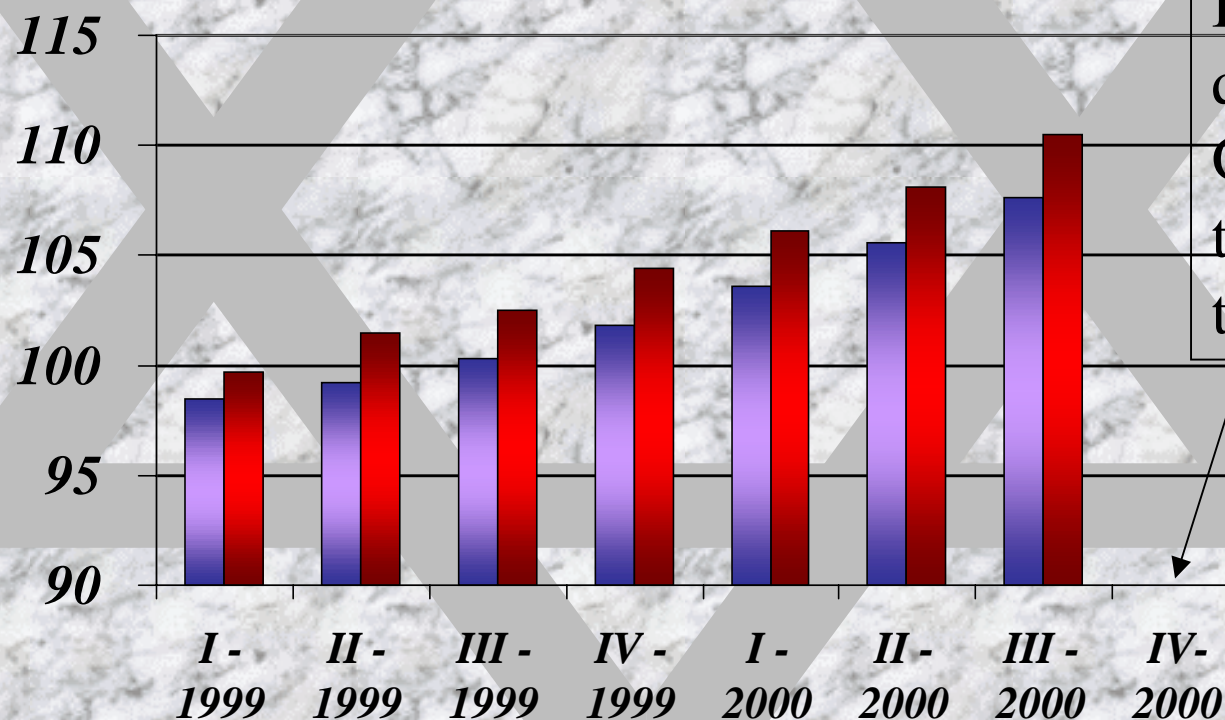

GDP - Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend

Percent Change - on Previous Quarter
Annual Rate

GDP - Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend Index 1998=100

In the fourth quarter the GDP is lower than in the third quarter

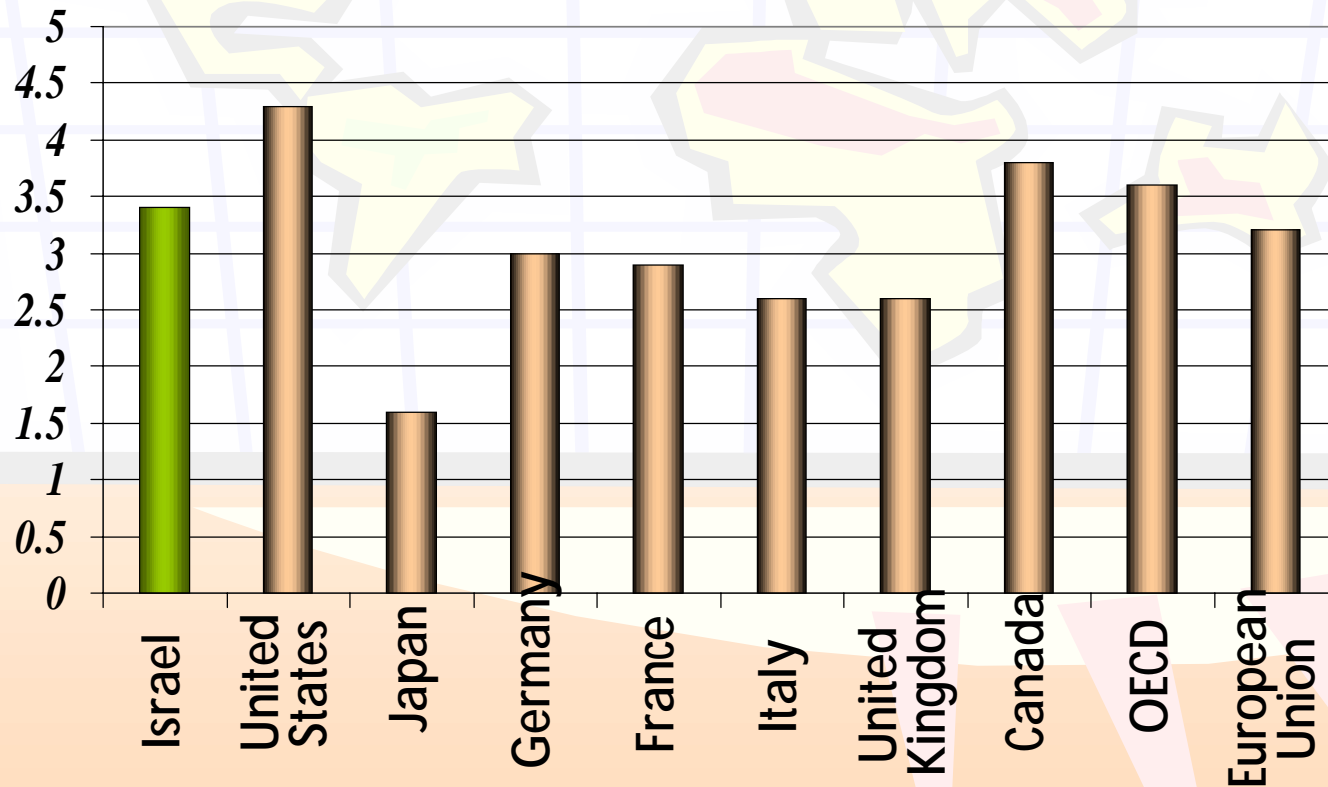

Legend:

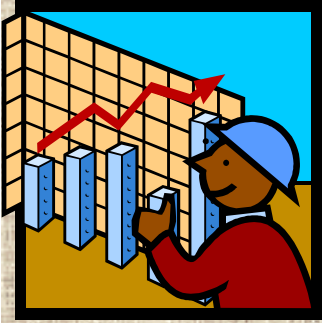

- Trend
- Seasonally Adjusted

GDP Per Capita International Comparison - 2000

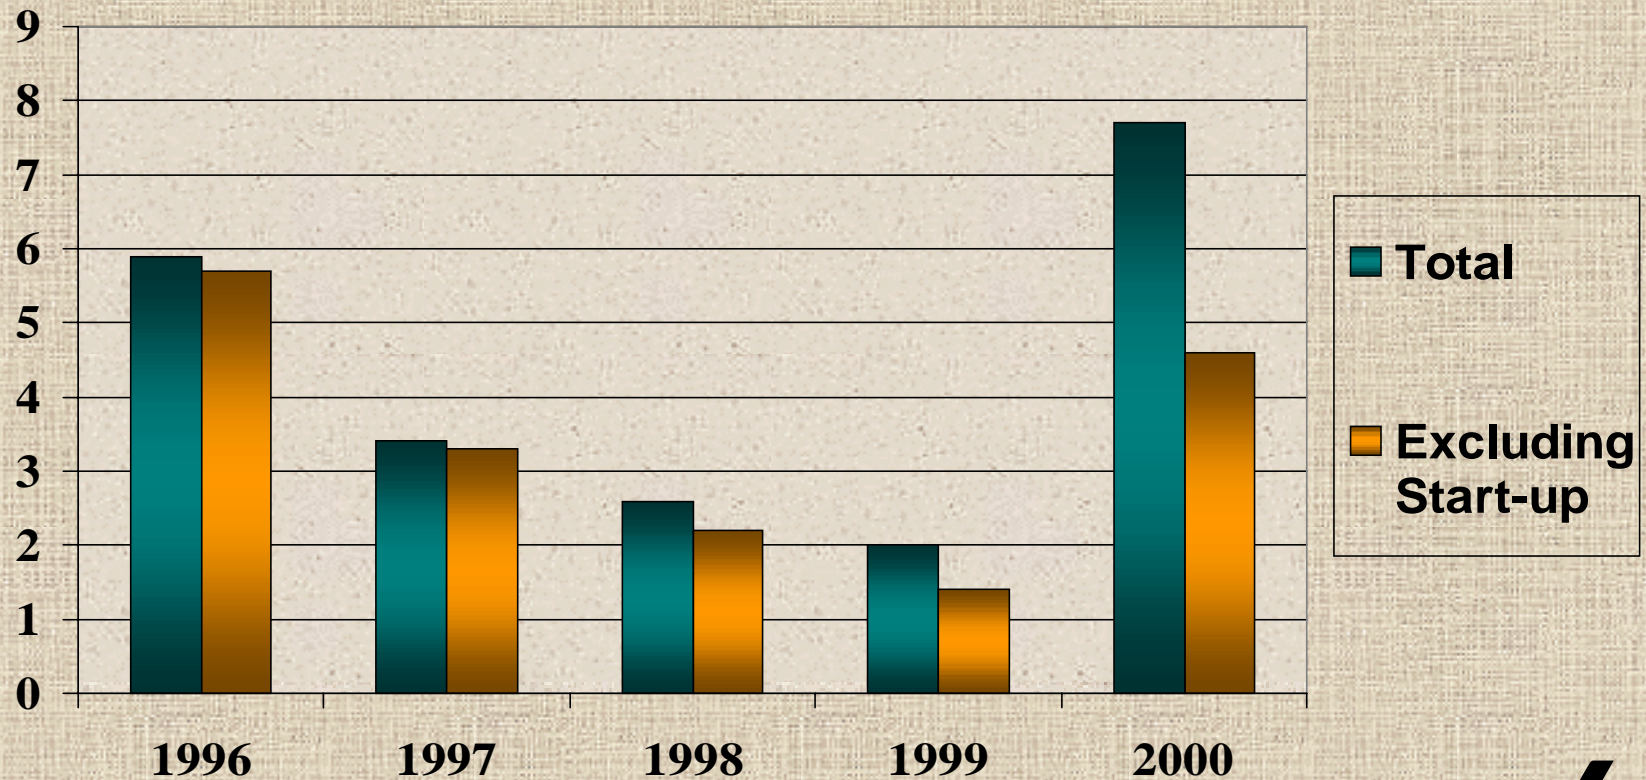

Percent Quantity Change

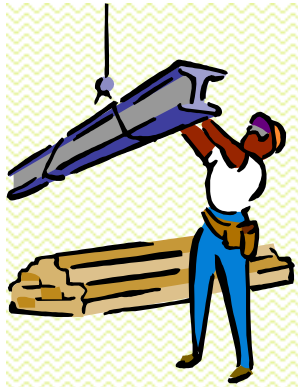

Business Product

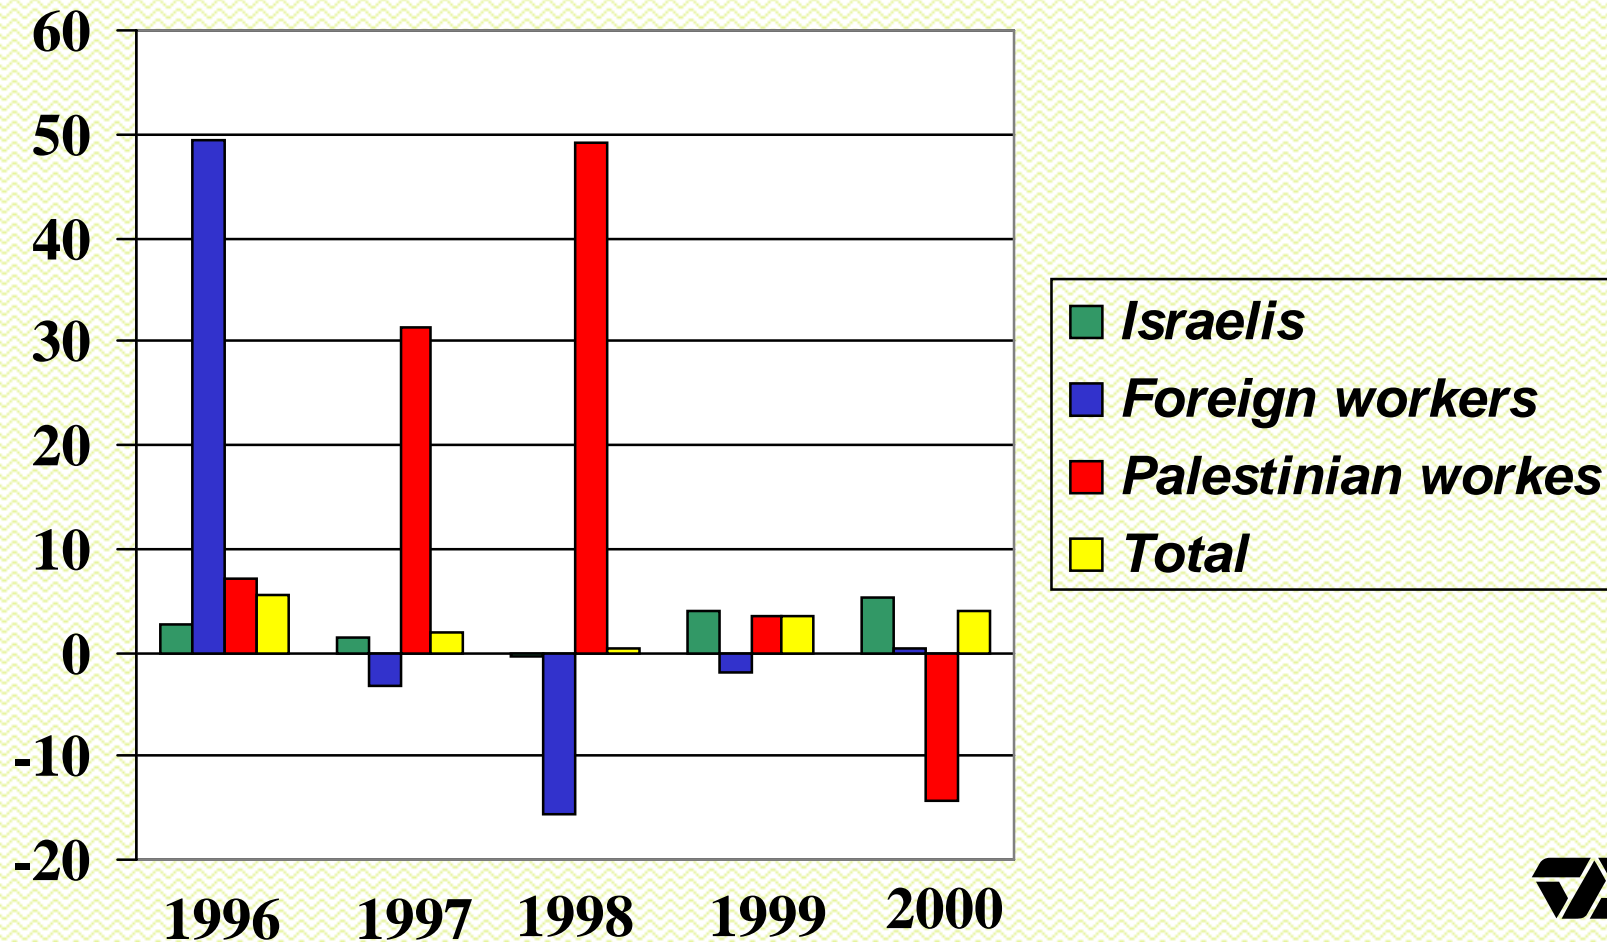

Percent Change - on Previous Year

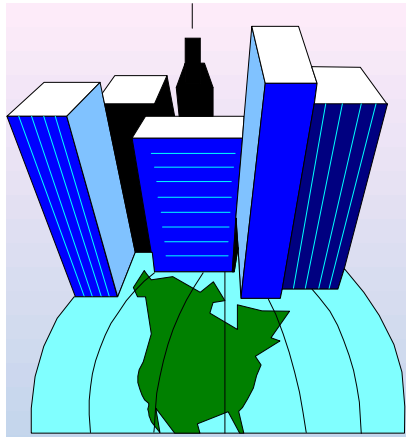

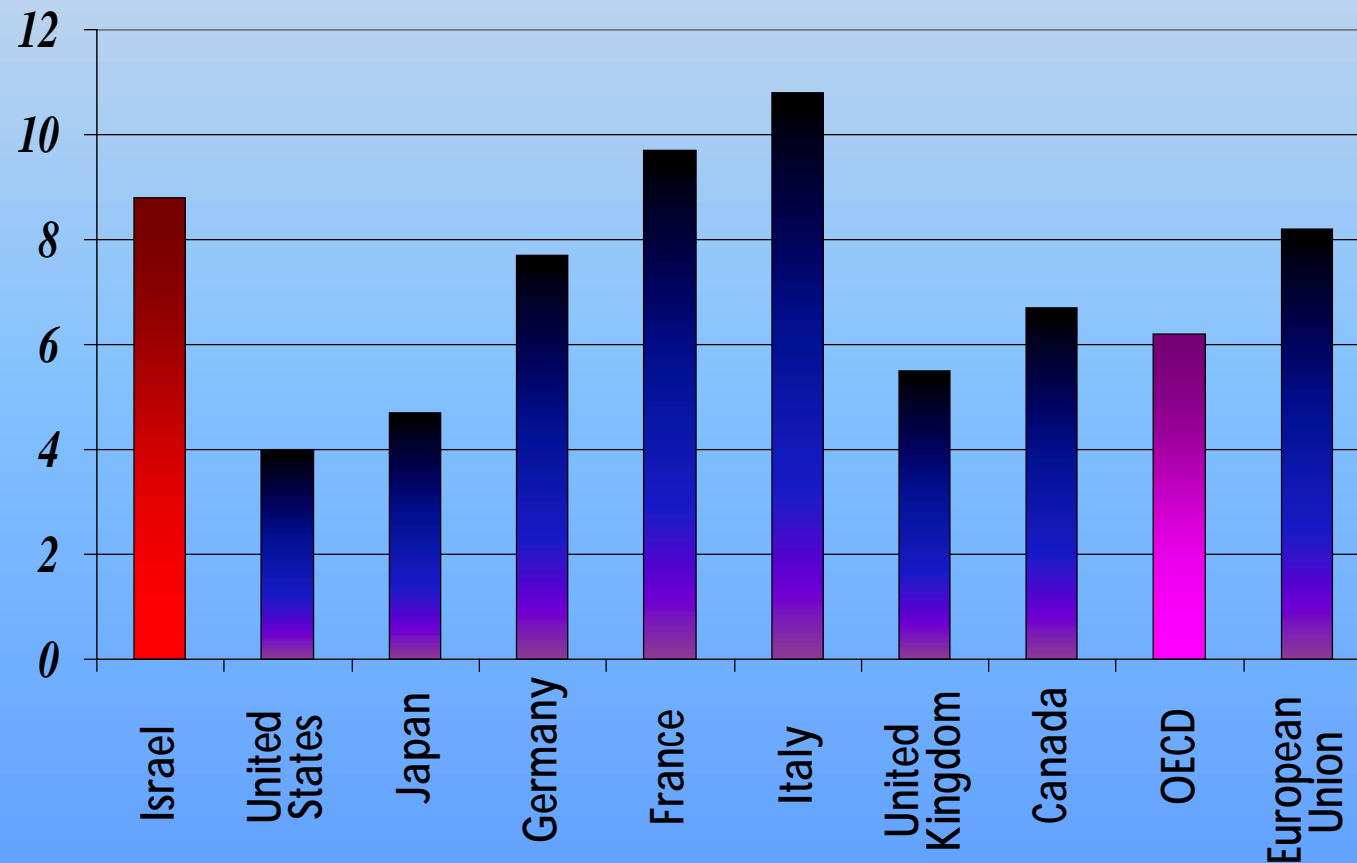

Labor Input

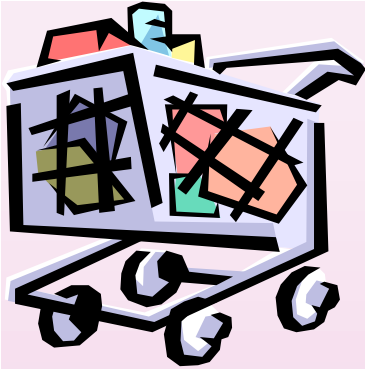

Percent Change - on Previous Year

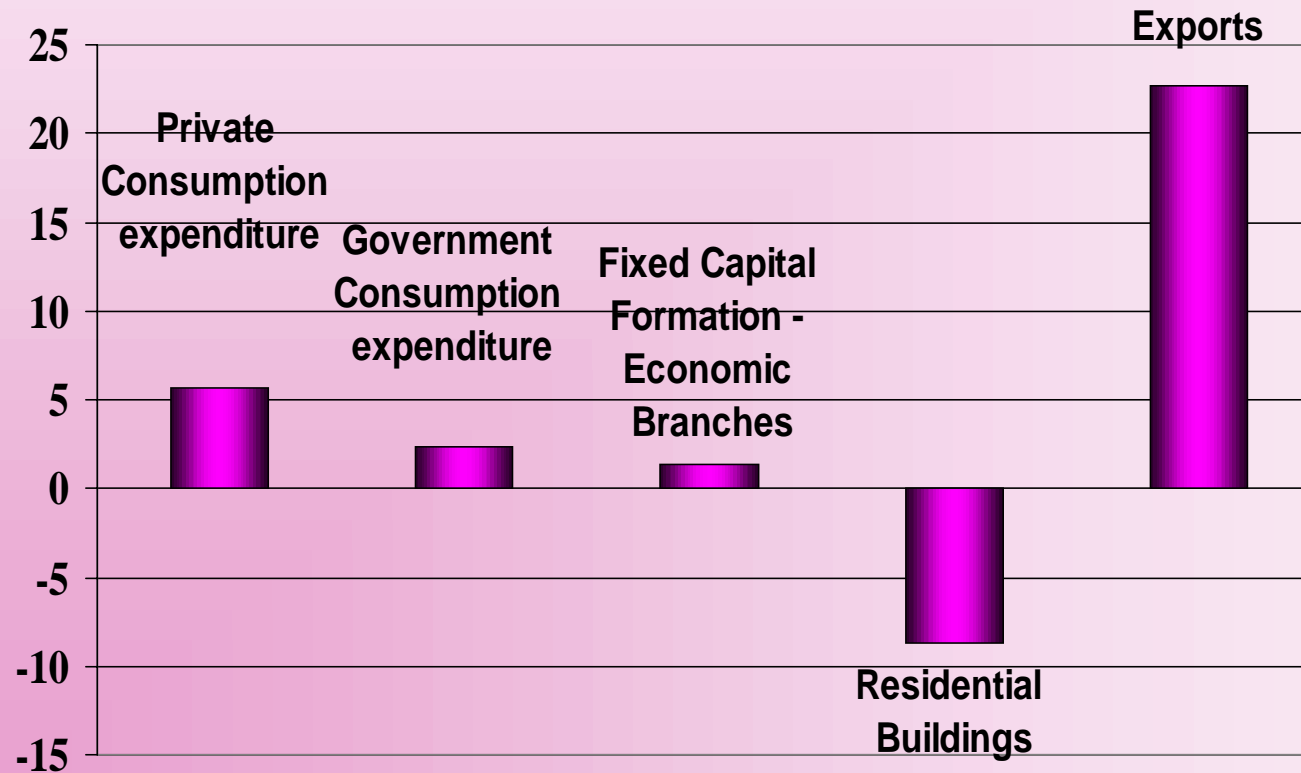

Rate of Unemployment International Comparison 2000

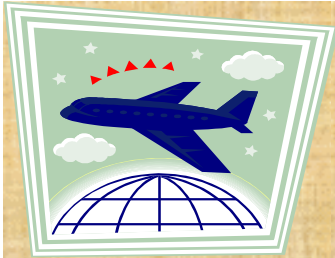

Uses of Resources - 2000

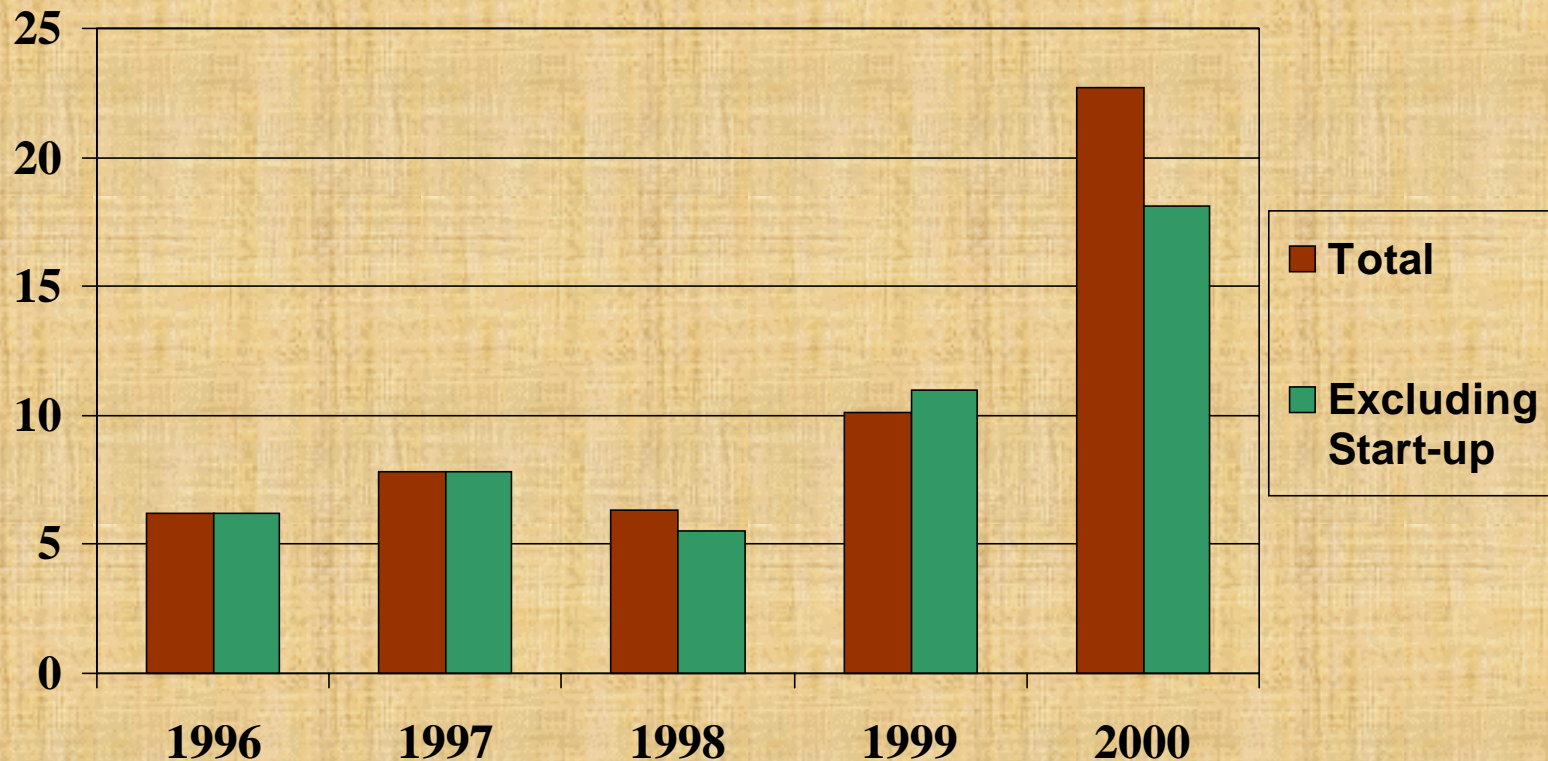

Percent Quantity Change

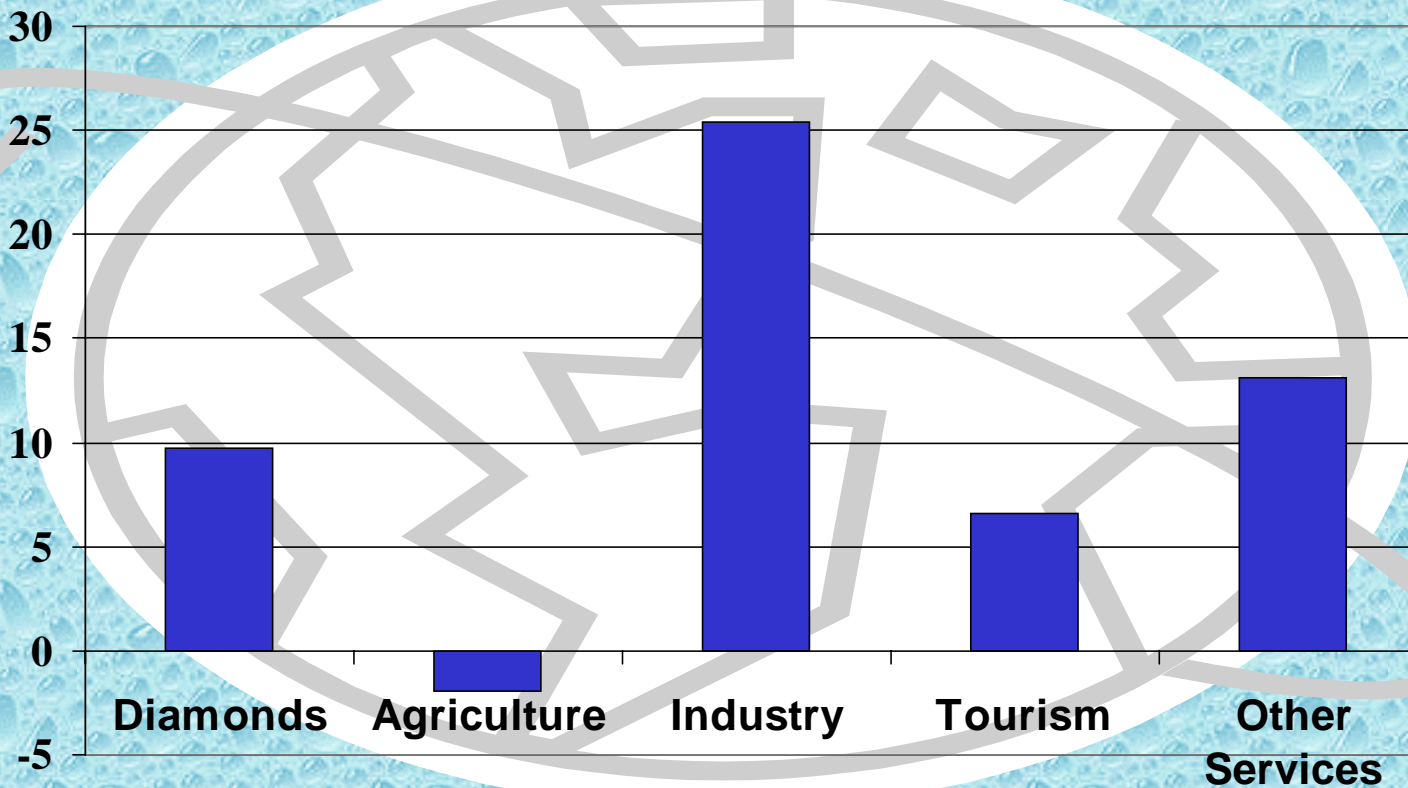

Exports of Goods and Services

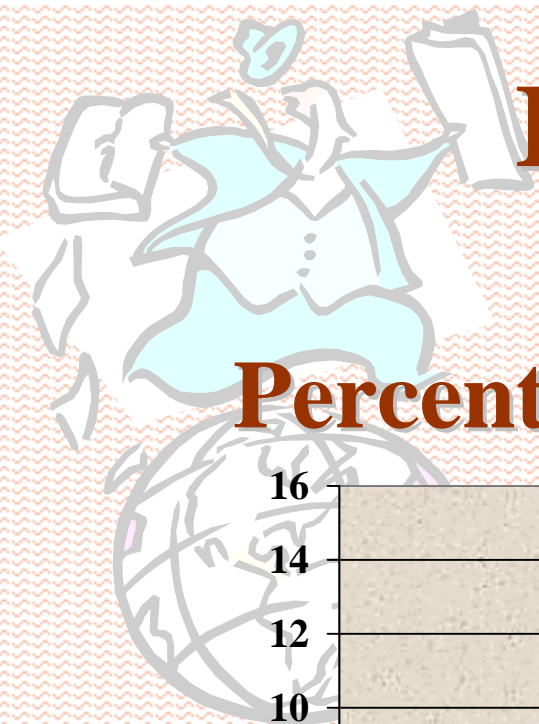

Percent Change - on Previous Year

Exports Components - 2000

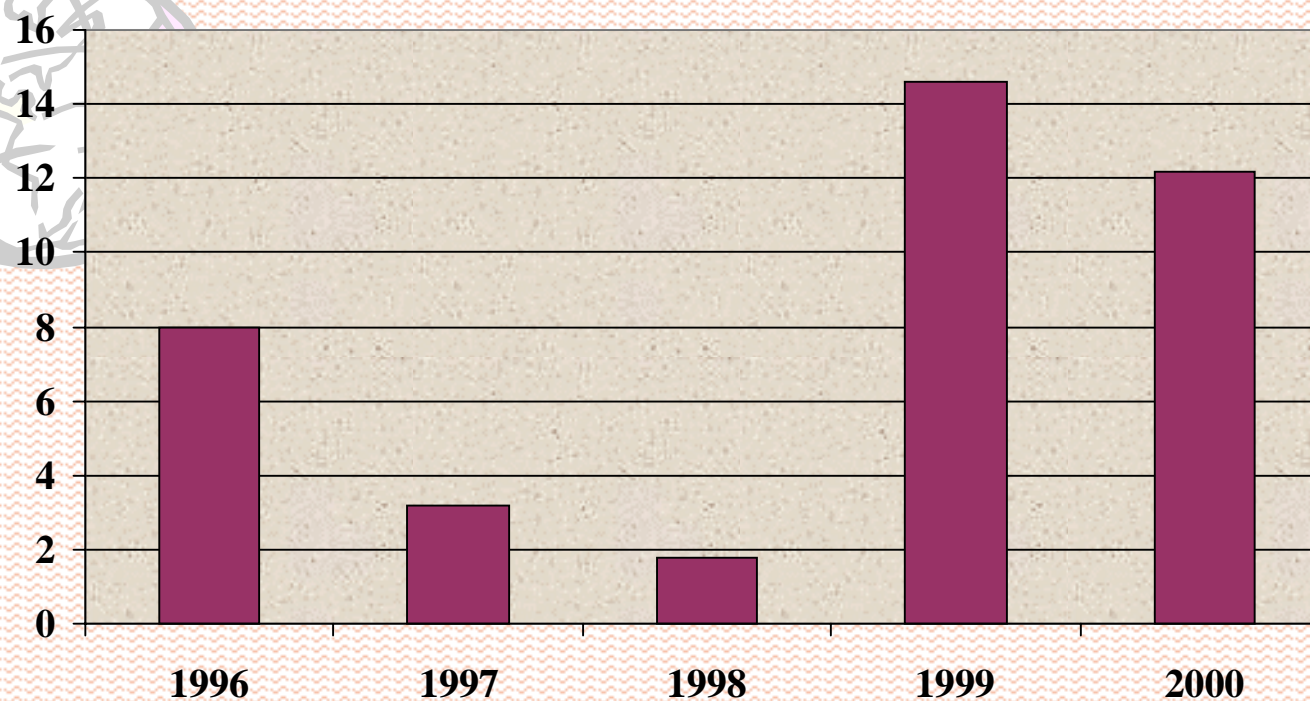

Percent Quantity Change

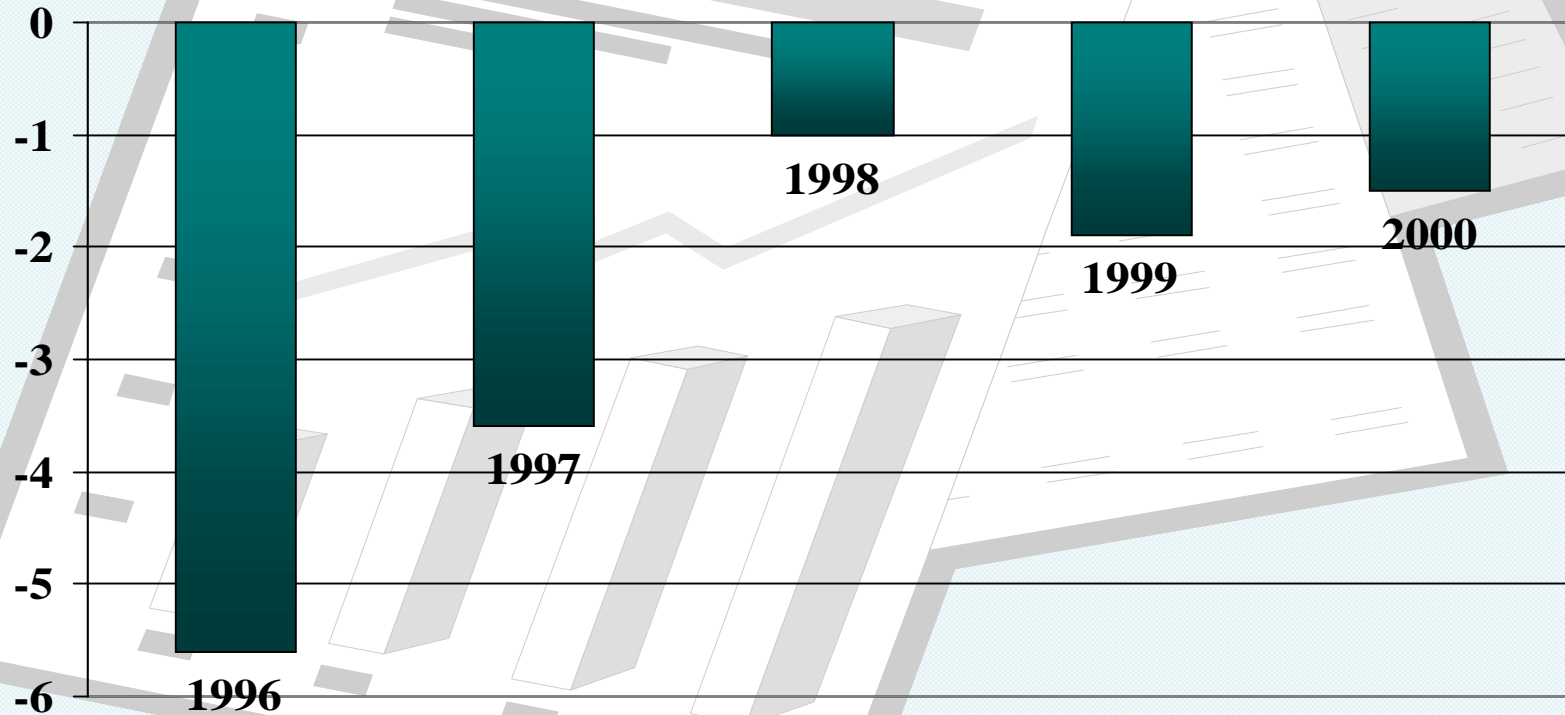

Imports of Goods and Services

Percent Change - on Previous Year

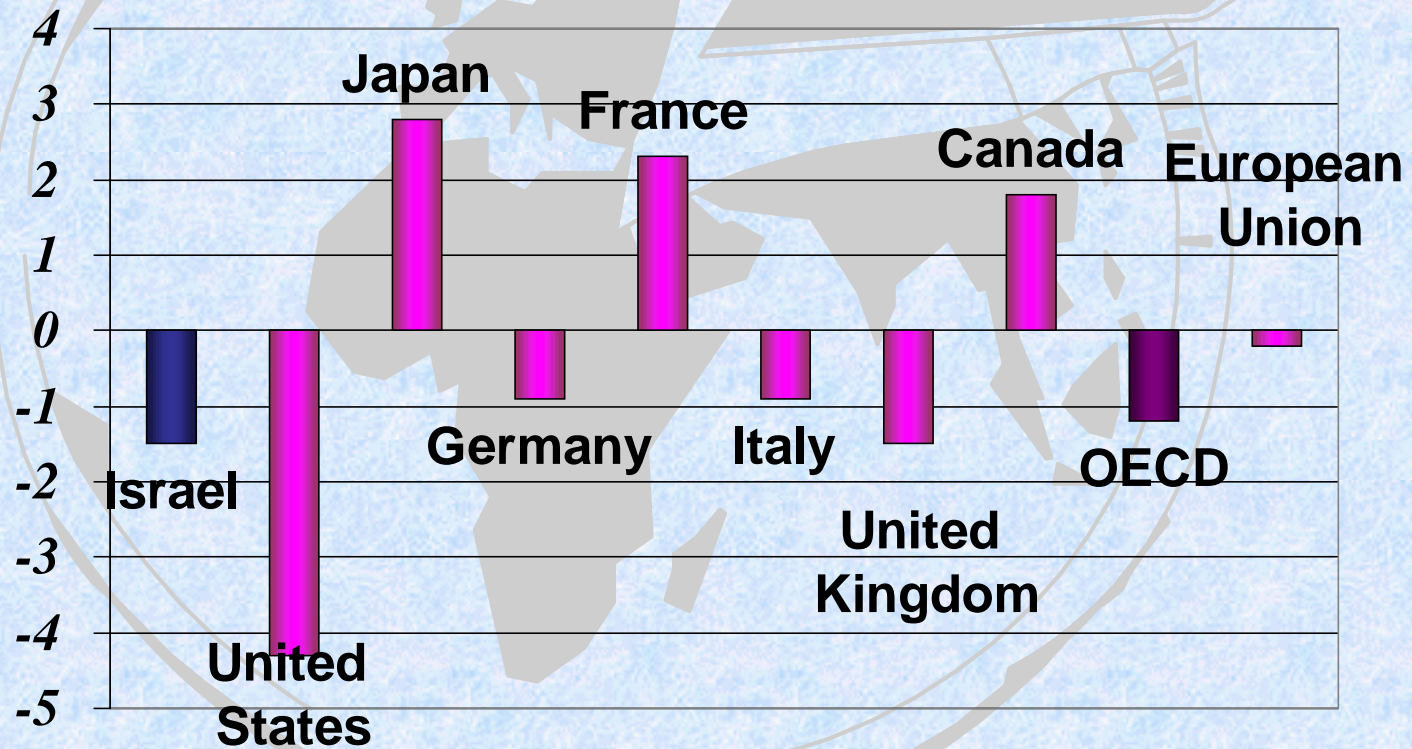

Balance of Payments Current Account Deficit as a Percent of GDP

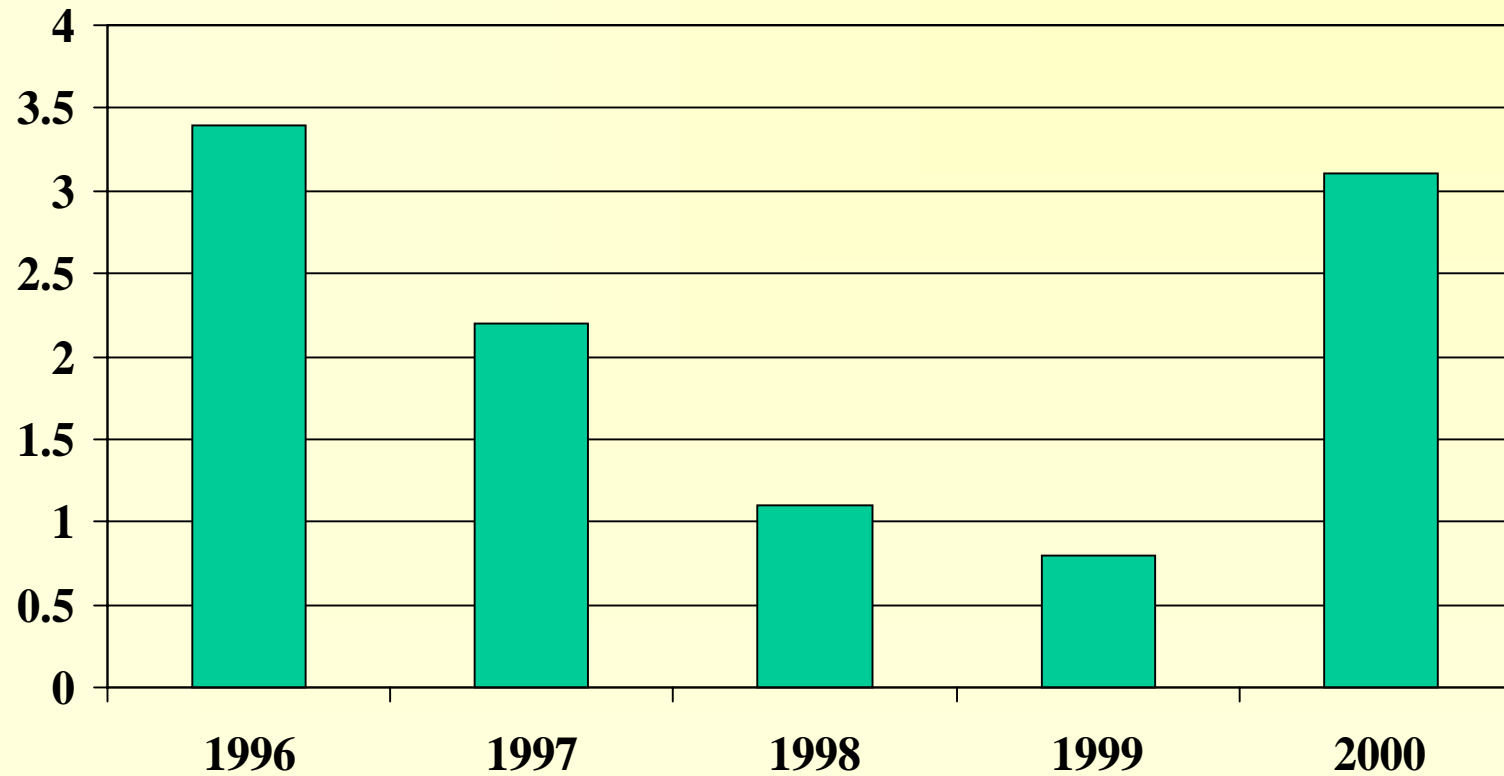

Balance of Payments Surplus/Deficit as a Percent of GDP

International Comparison- 2000

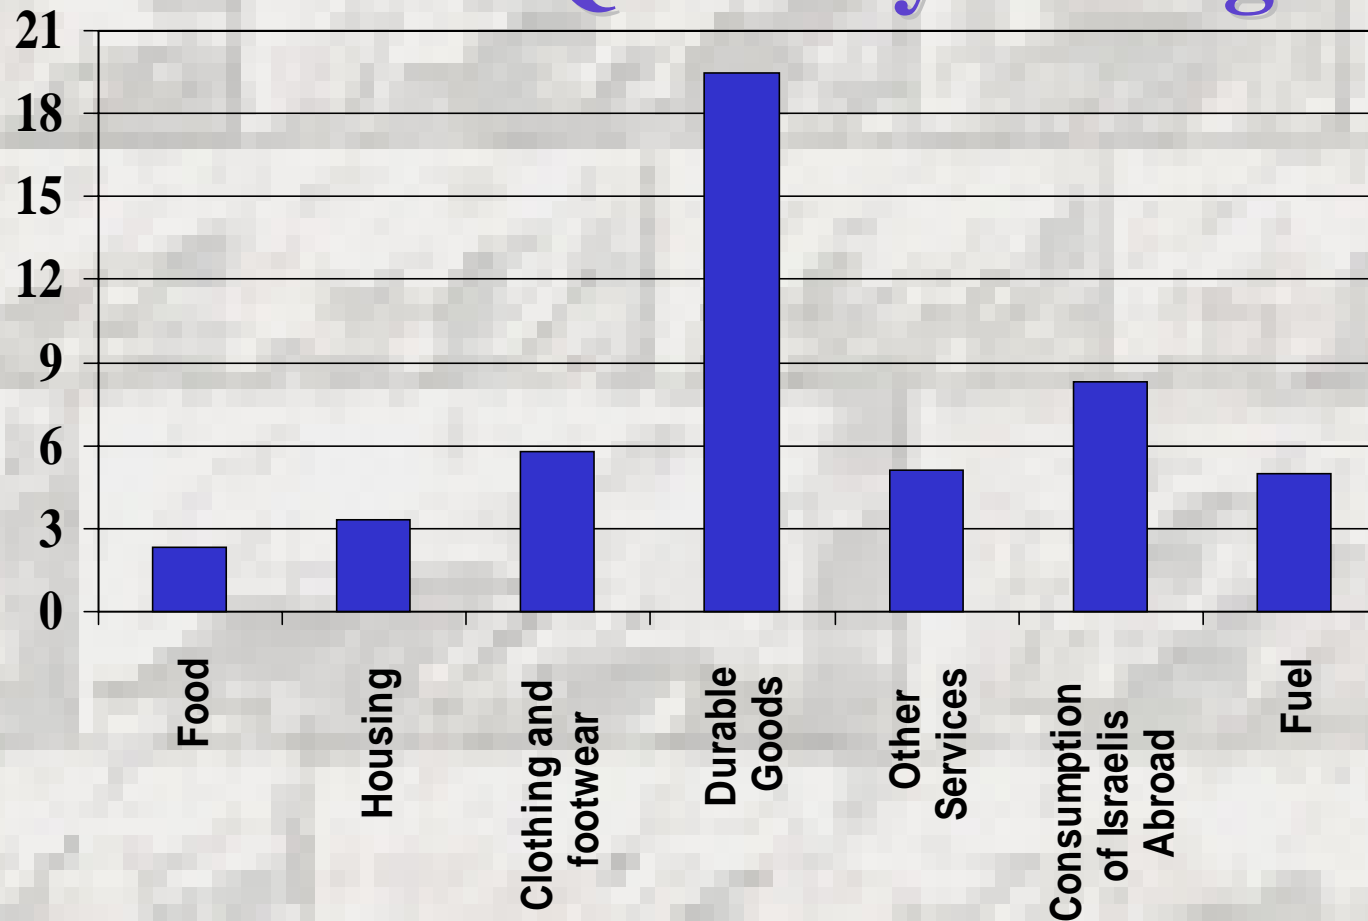

Private Consumption Per Capita Percent Change - on Previous Year

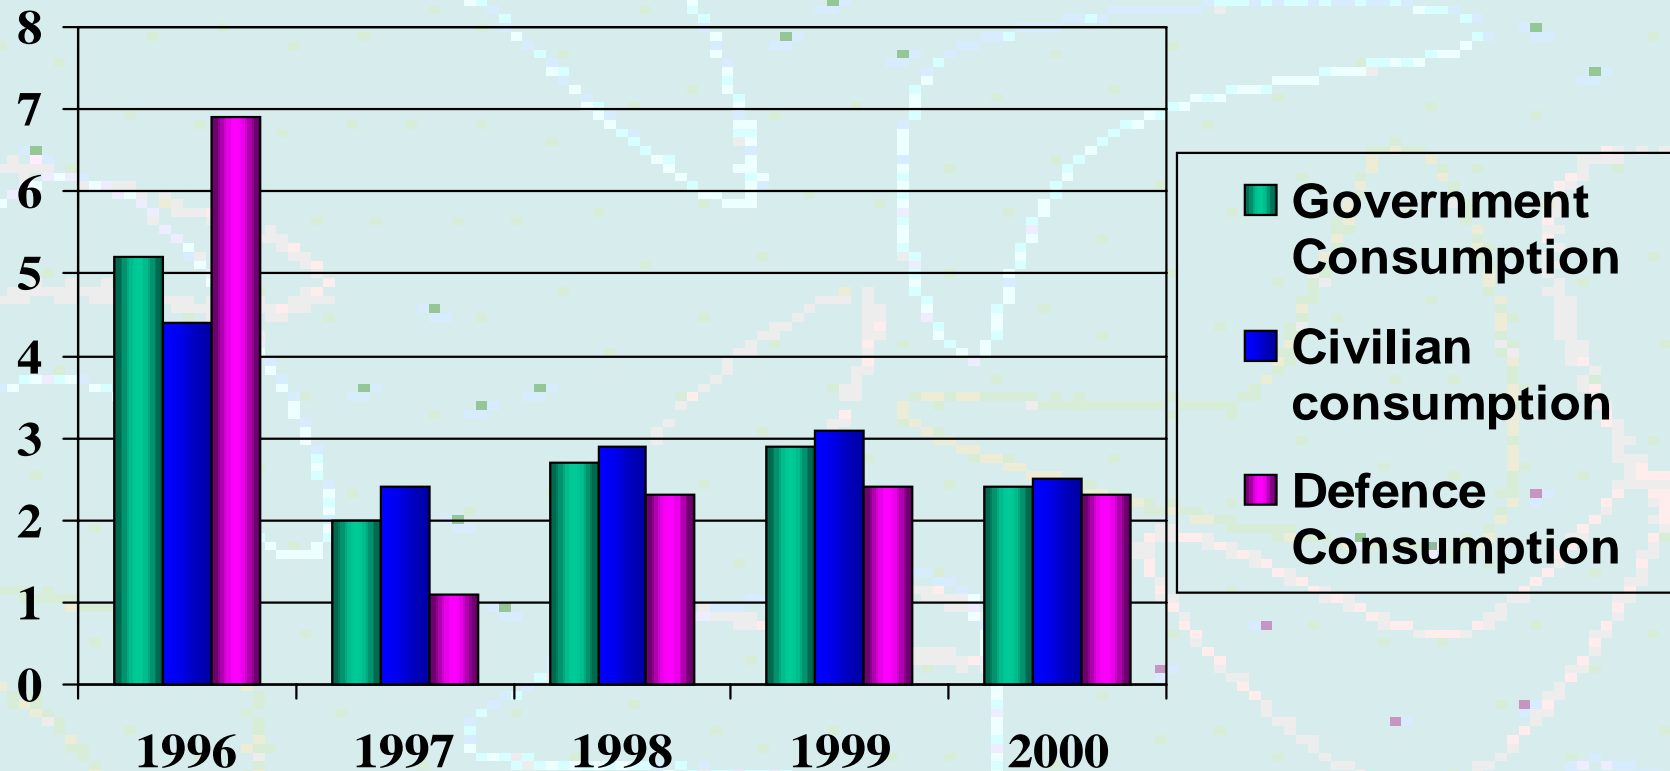

Private Consumption Components - 2000 Percent Quantity Change

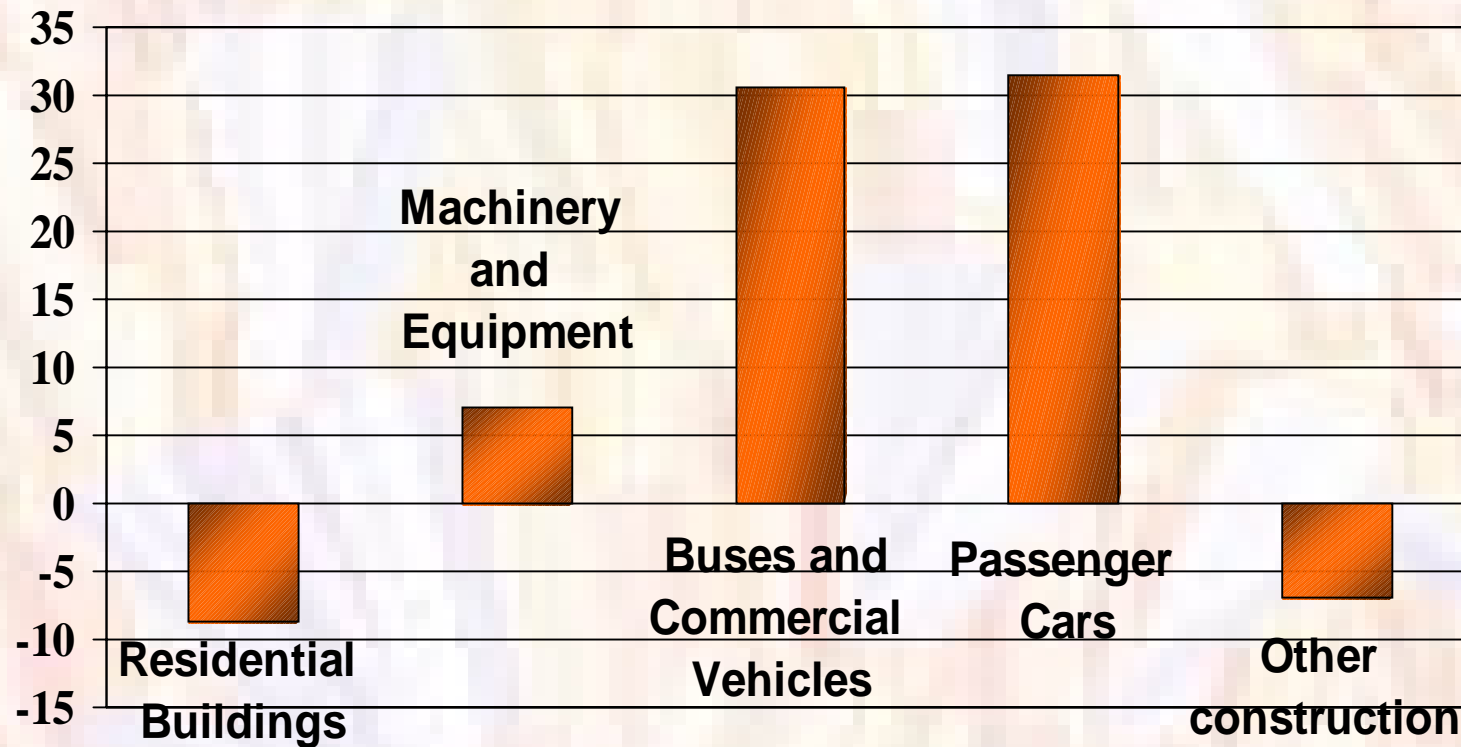

General Government Consumption Expenditure Percent Change - on Previous Year

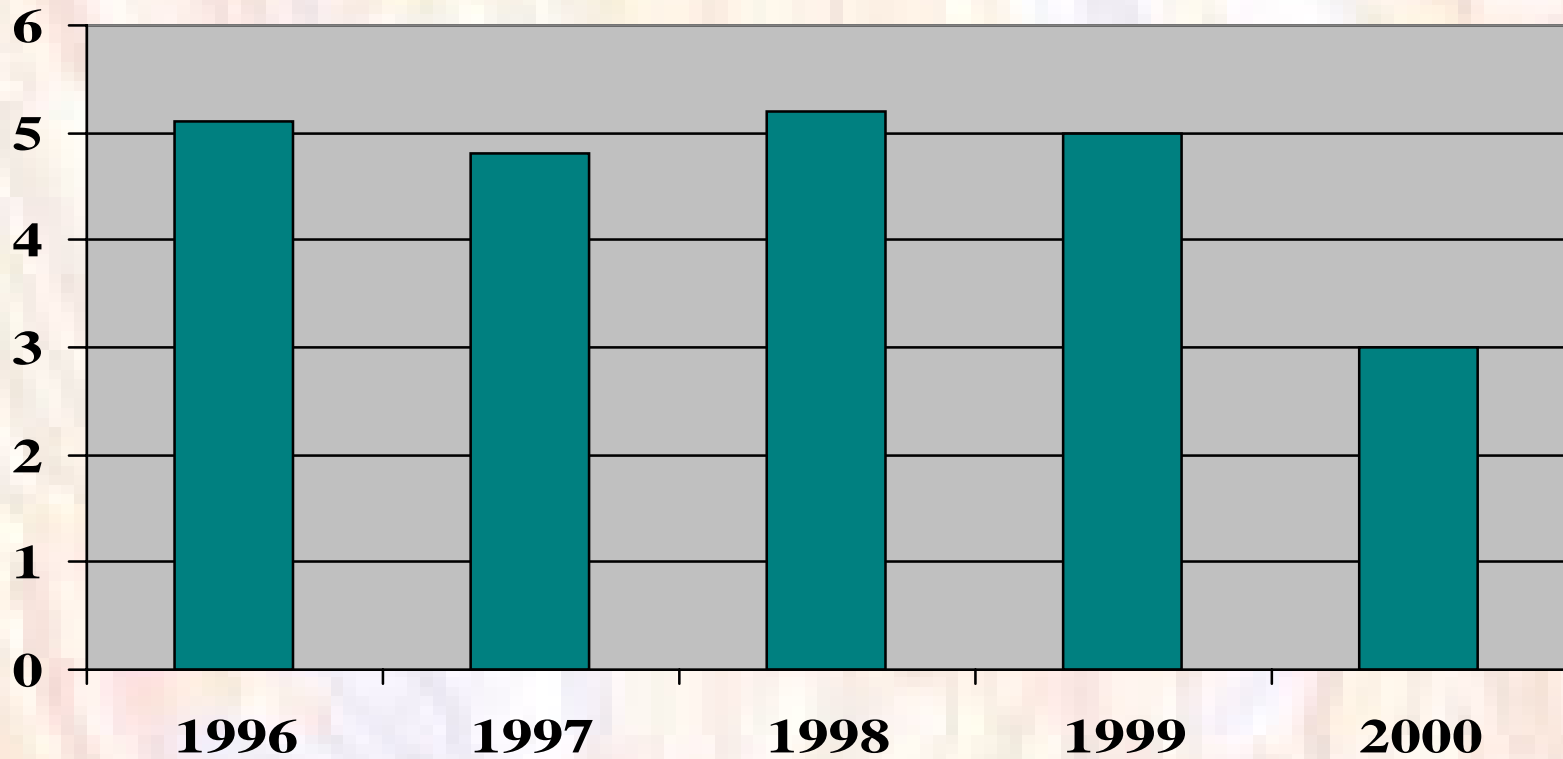

Fixed Capital Formation Components - 2000 Percent Quantity Change

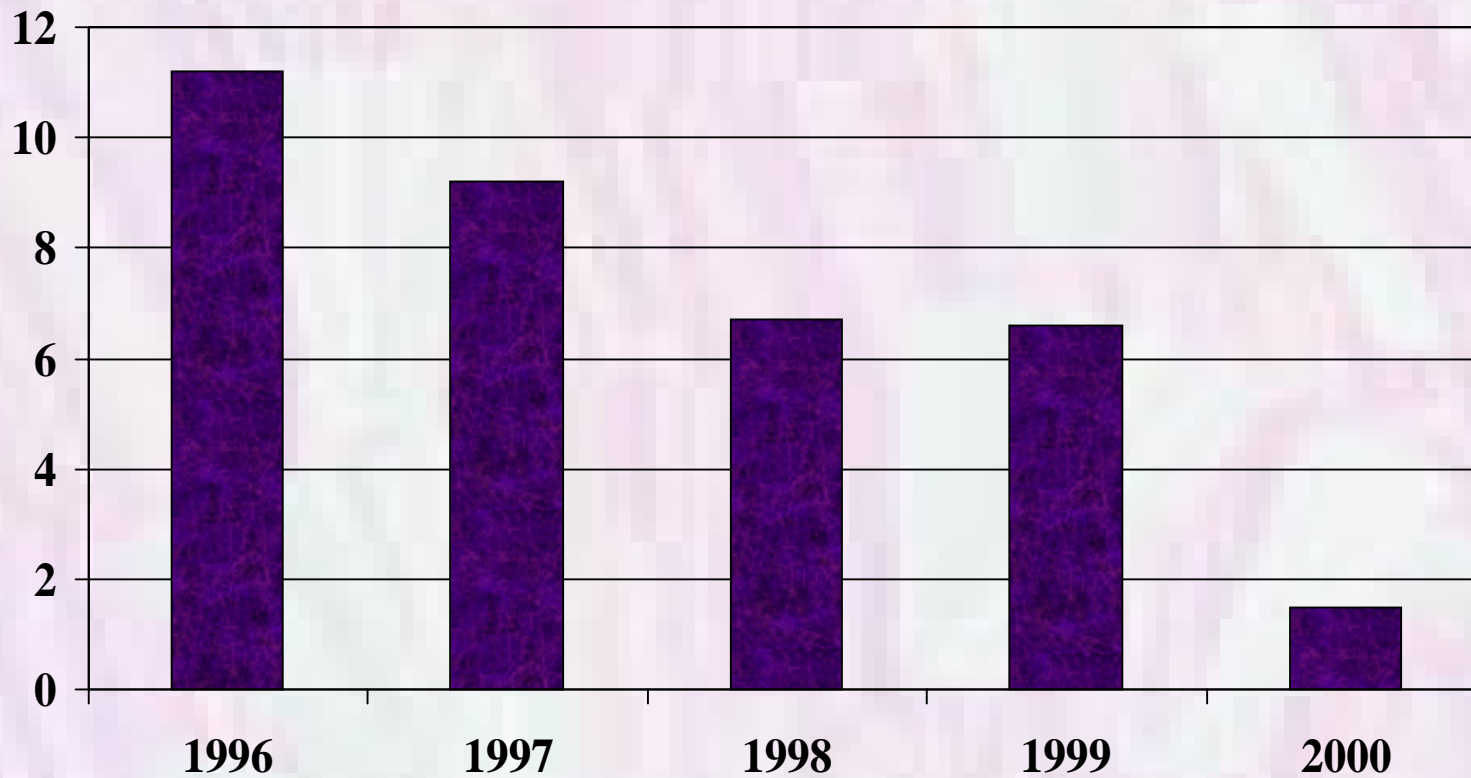

National Saving

Percent of National Disposable Income

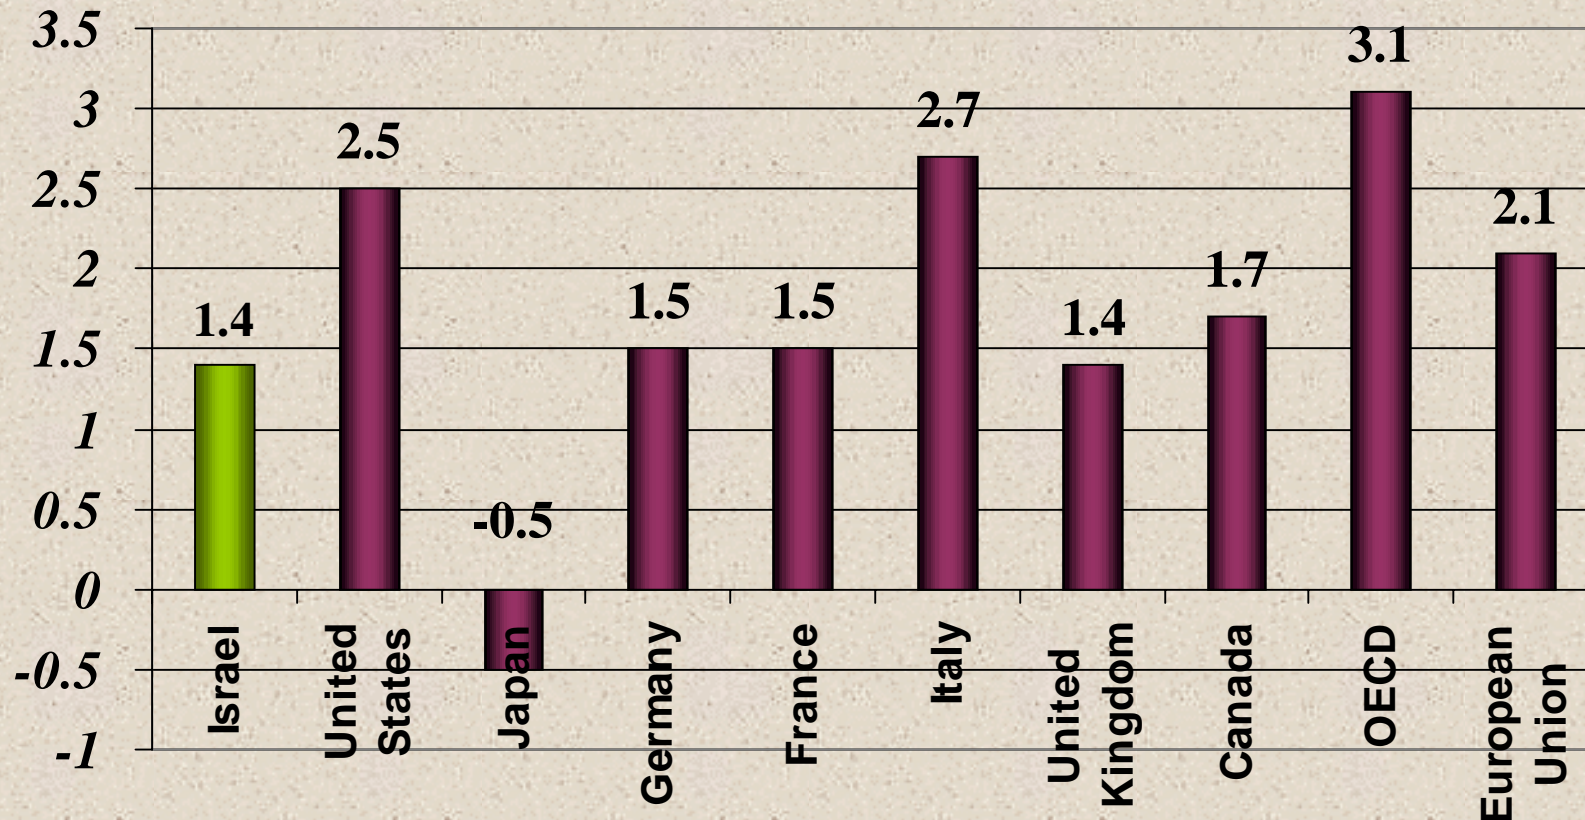

GDP Prices Percent change - on previous year

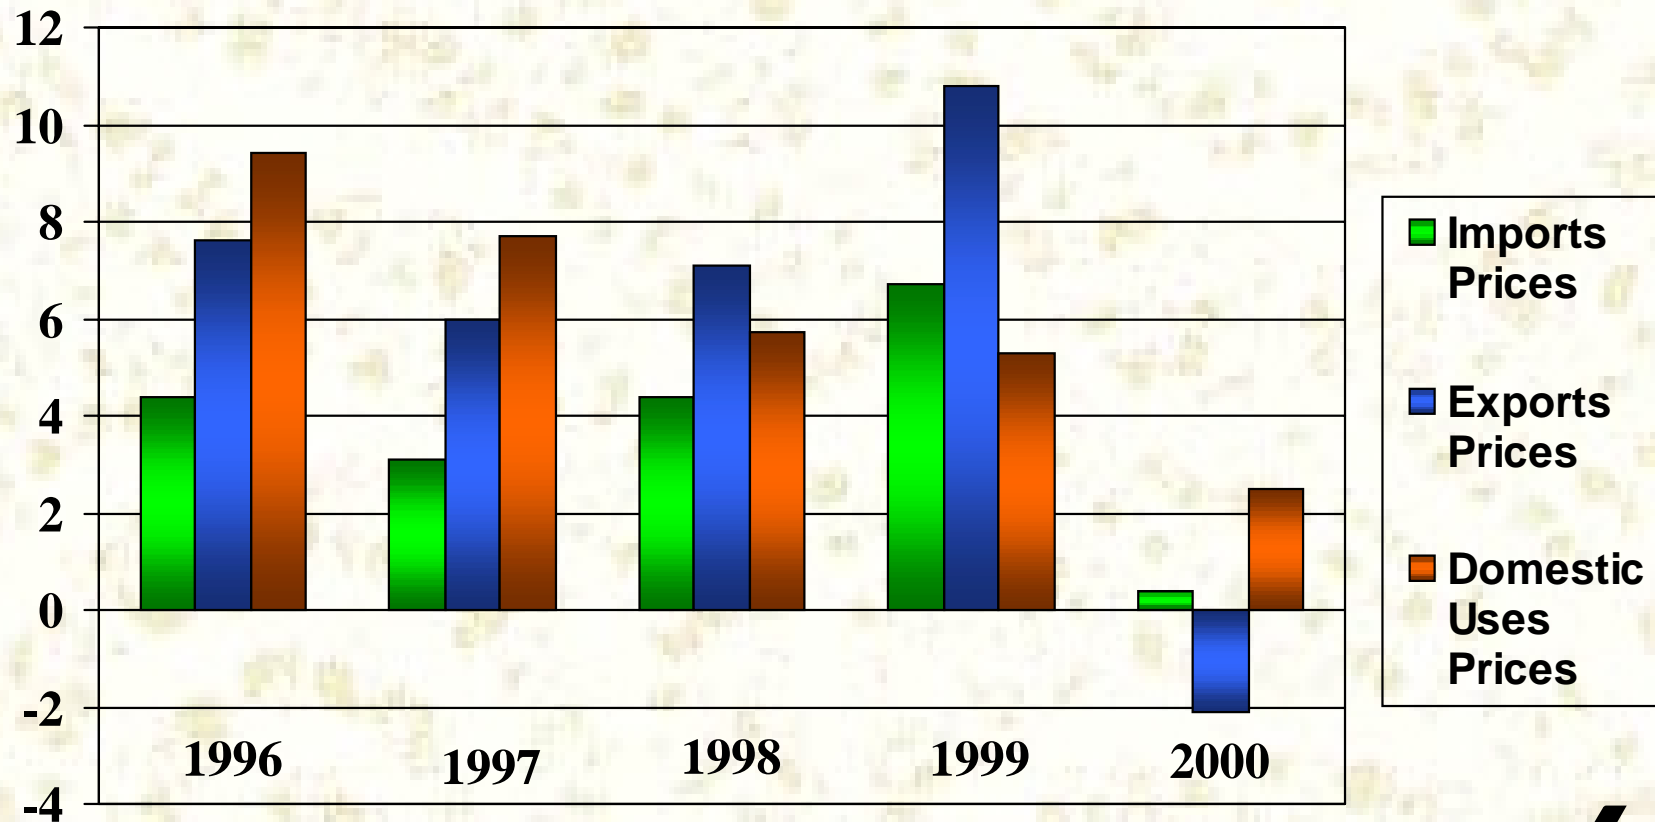

Private Consumption Prices International Comparison - 2000 Percent quantity change

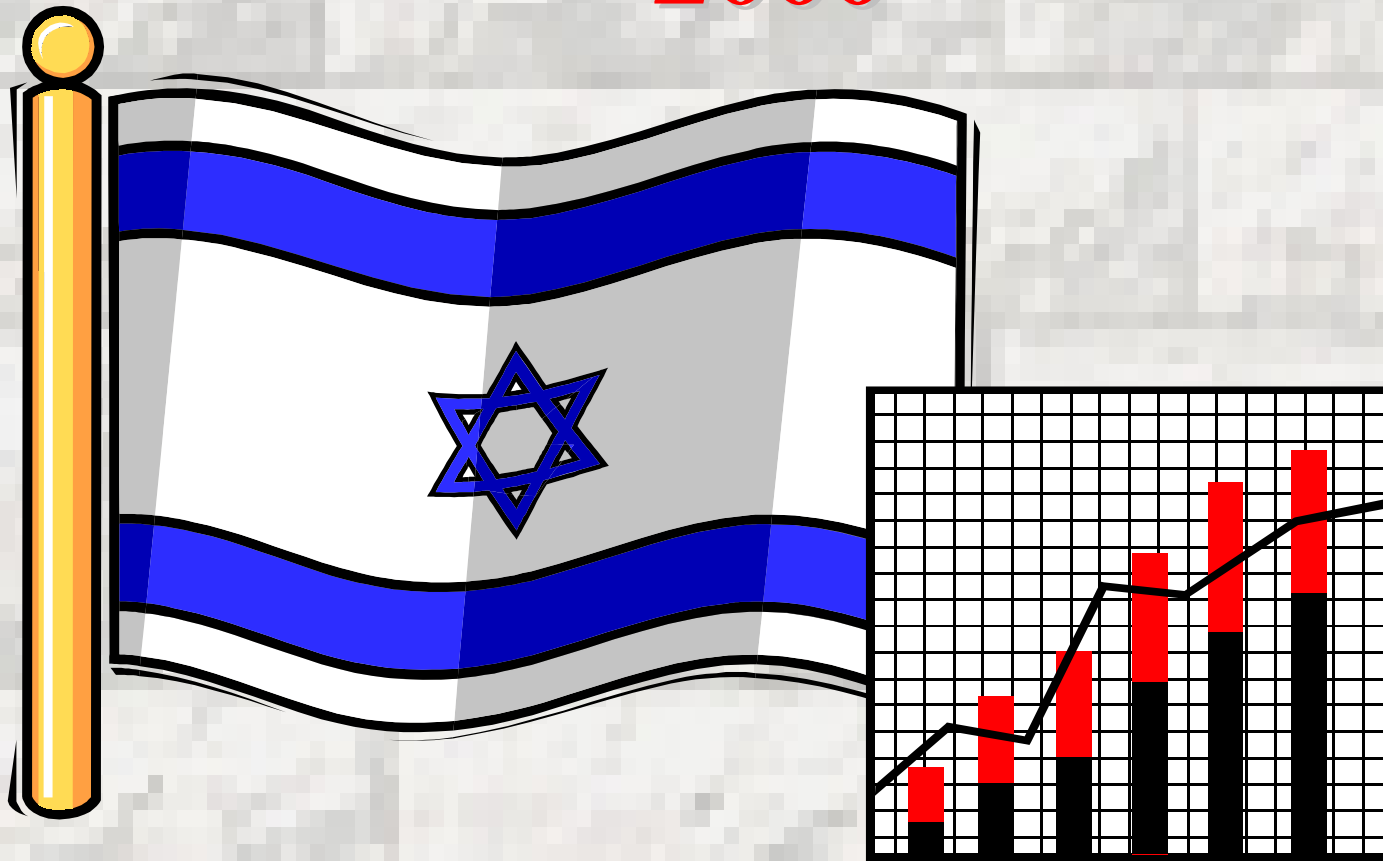

Exports, Imports and Domestic Uses Prices

Percent Change - on Previous Year

Main Indicators of the Economy 2000

Most of the economic indicators until November show a deceleration in the growth of economic activity:

- Exports of goods grew by an annual rate of 9% compared to 13% in October and 19% in September.
- Retail commerce sales grew in October at a relatively low annual rate of 3%.
- Number of domestic tourist nights in hotels, seasonally adjusted, increased, following a significant decrease in October.
- In November, the number of foreign tourist nights in hotels, seasonally adjusted, was a third of the number of nights in September.

The indicators on activities in the economic branches show a deceleration in the growth rate.

- Trend data on the Industrial production indicate a 3% growth rate in October, similar to September and compared to 4-5% a month in July-August.
- The trend data on revenue in the commerce and services branches (exc. Banks) show a growth rate of 4% in October compared to 5-6% a month in August-September.
- The trend of Imports of production inputs indicates an annual growth rate of 11% in November in comparison to 13% in September.

- The growth rate in the trend of imported investment goods remained 7%, similar to September-October.
- The Unemployment rate remained 8.9% , similar to September.
- Trend data on the consumer price index decreased by 1.1% at an annual rate, following a decrease of 2.2% in October, 3.3% in September and 2.2% in August.

Exports of goods

Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend

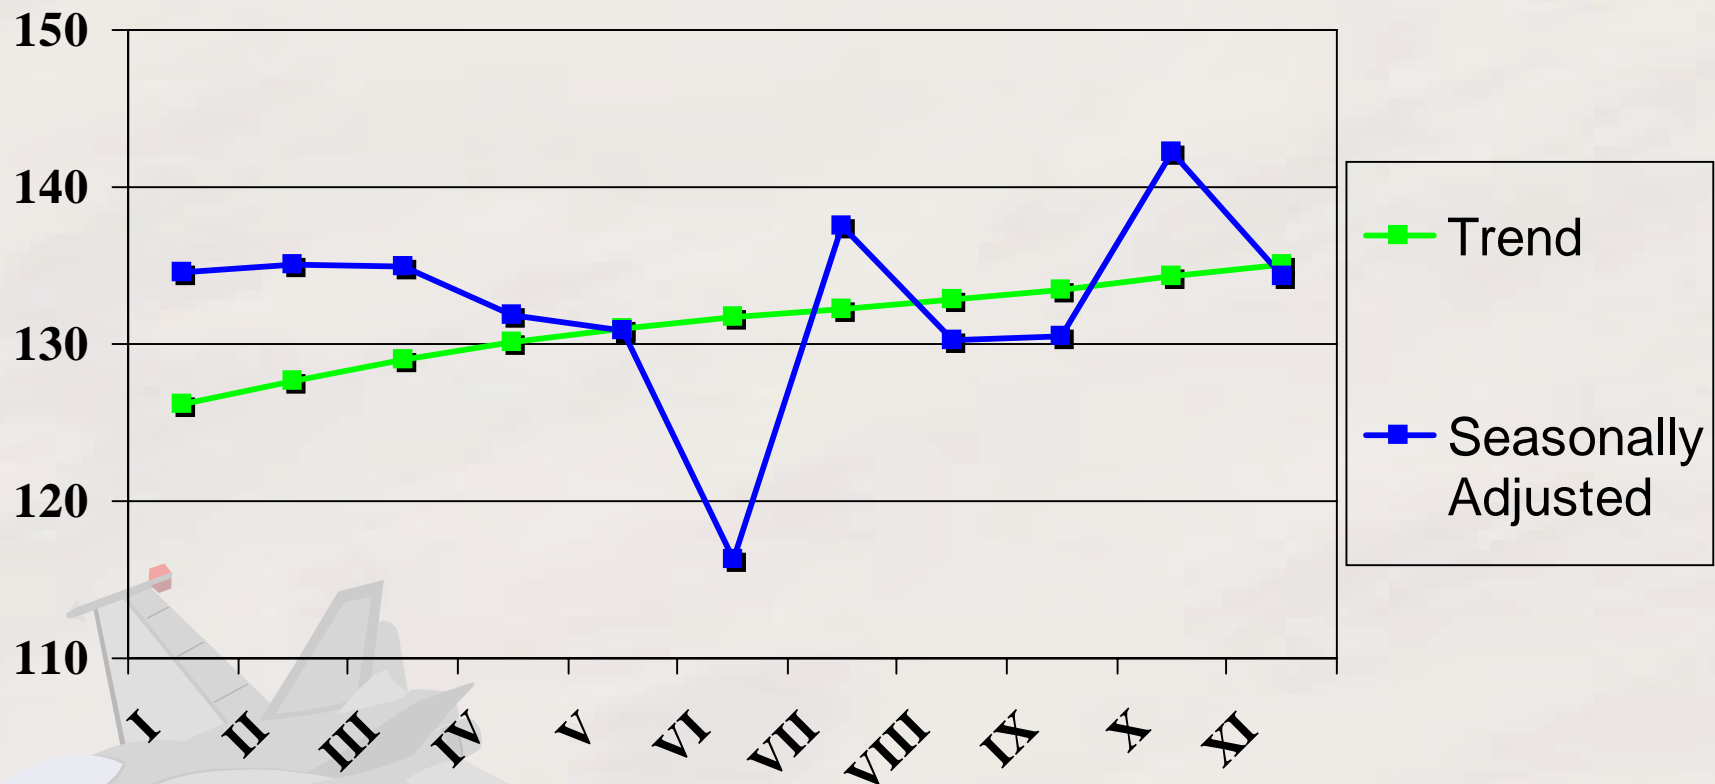

1998=100

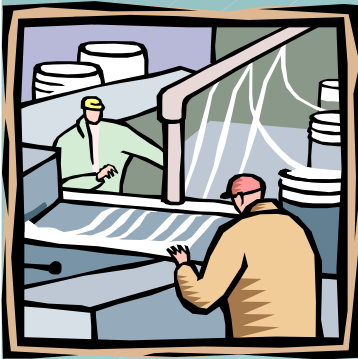

Imports of Investment Goods

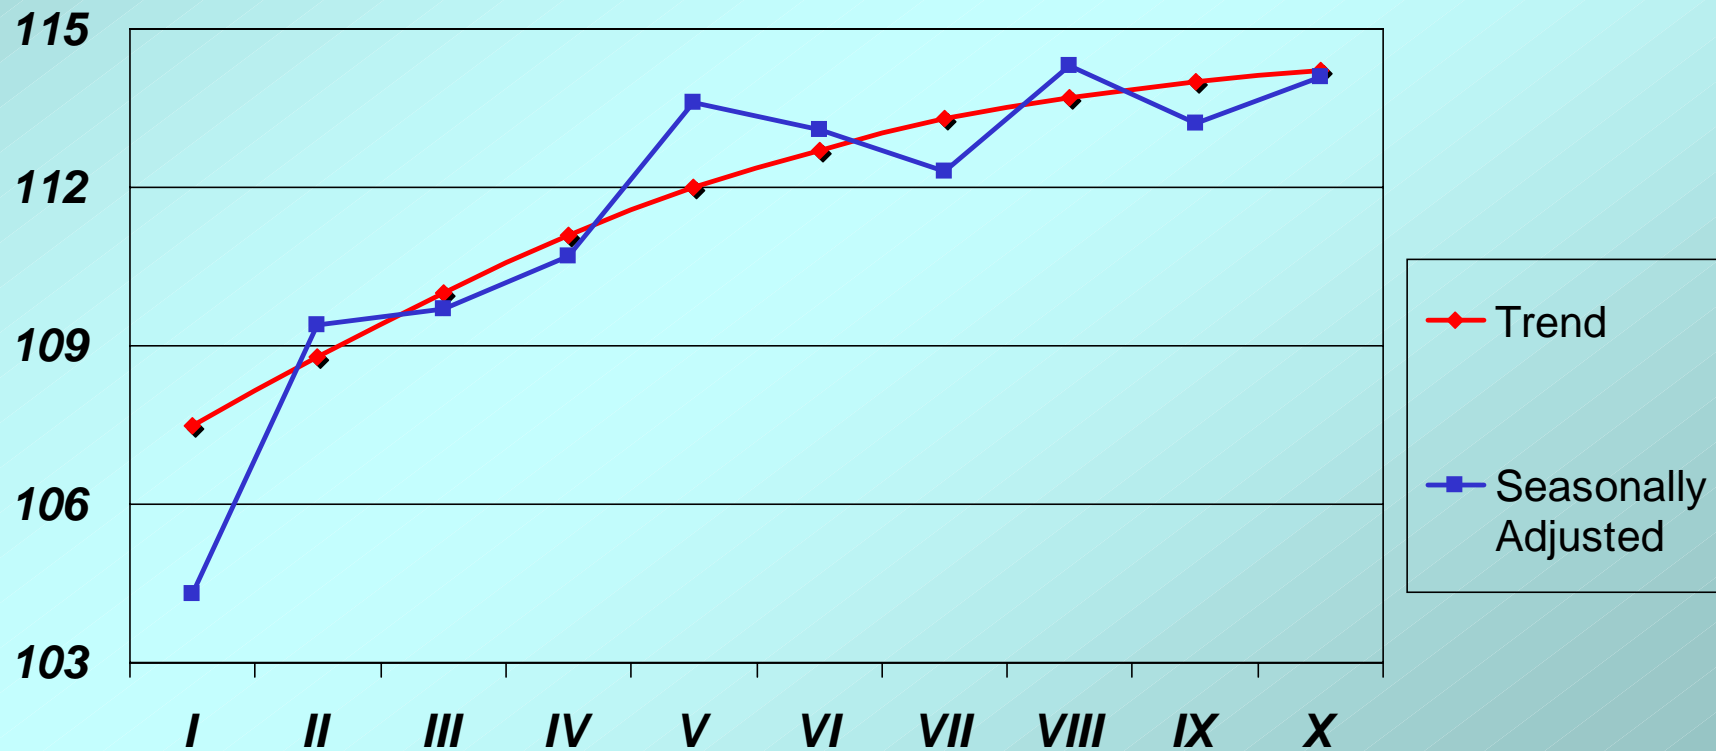

Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend

1998=100

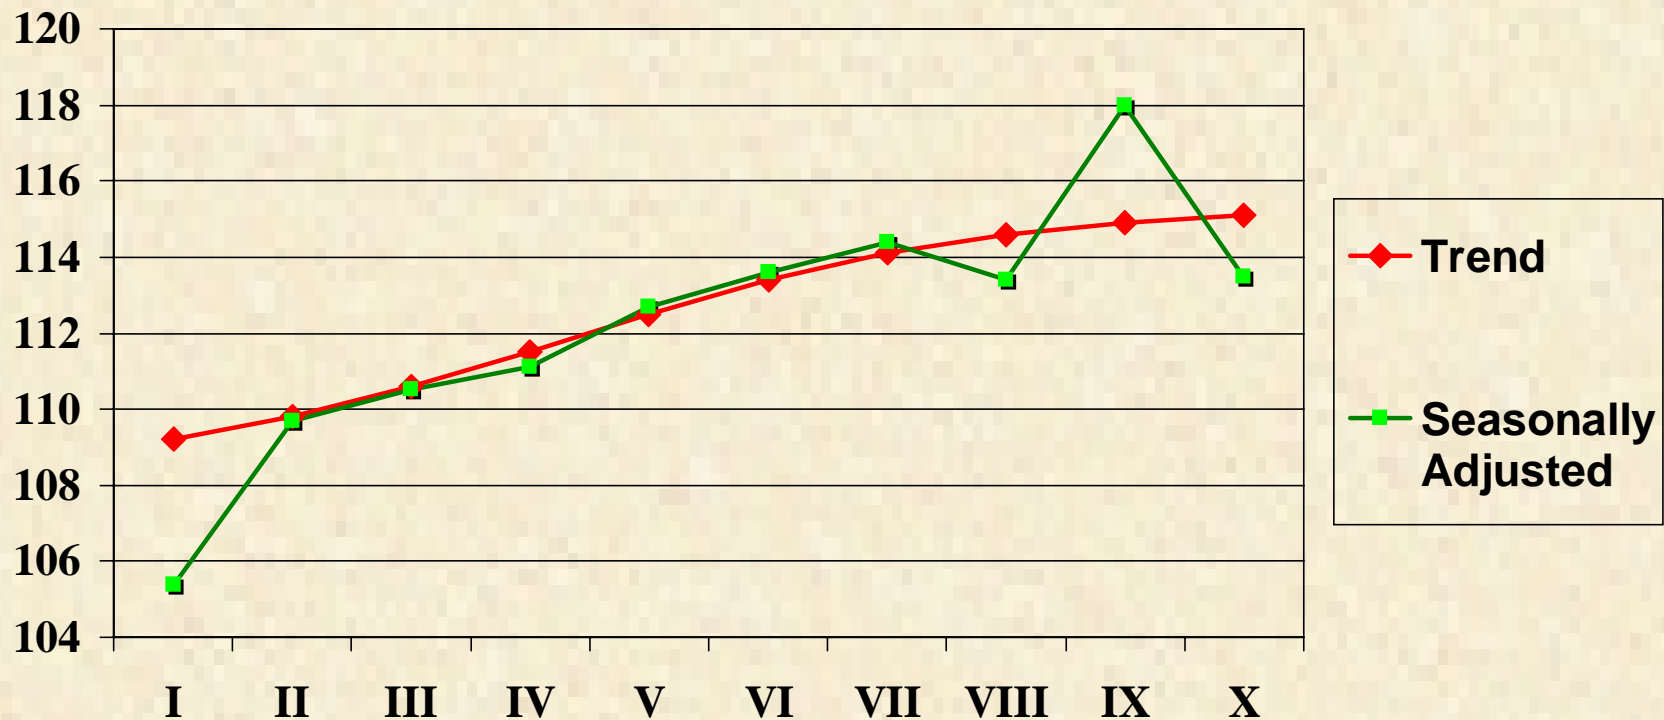

Industrial Production Index Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend 1998=100

Revenue of Retail Trade

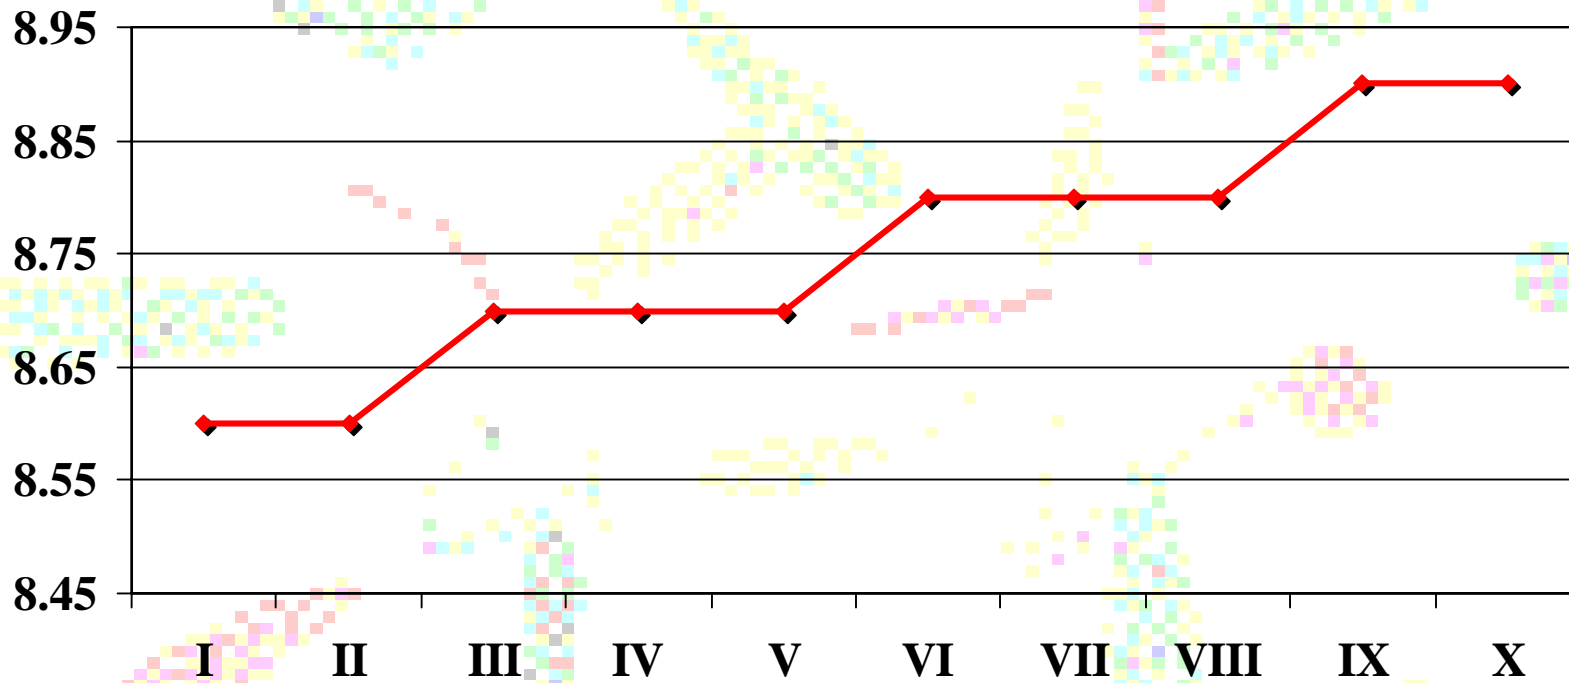

Seasonally Adjusted Data and Trend

1998=100

Unemployed Persons as Percent of Civilian Labor Force Trend

Consumer Price Indices Trend

Percent Change - on Previous Month

